

Sarpass Trek

Dear Sir/Ma'am

Greetings from LookATrip

Welcome to the world of extraordinary travel with LookATrip! The Sarpass trek is a popular trekking route in the Indian state of Himachal Pradesh, specifically in the Parvati Valley near the town of Kasol.

Here's an overview: Location: Sarpass is situated in the Kullu district of Himachal Pradesh, India. Duration: The trek typically takes around 4 to 6 days to complete, depending on the route and the pace of the trekker. Difficulty Level: It's considered a moderately challenging trek, suitable for beginners with a reasonable level of fitness. However, certain sections can be steep and require endurance. Altitude: The highest point on the Sarpass trek is approximately 13,800 feet (4206 meters) above sea level. Route: The trek usually begins from Kasol and passes through lush green forests, meadows, and remote villages. The trail then ascends to higher altitudes, offering stunning views of snow-capped peaks, glaciers, and alpine lakes.

Day 1

Day 1: Reporting at Grahan base camp

Arrive at the Grahan Base Camp and meet our team. This day is for acclimatization and orientation. You can go out for a serene walk and explore this quaint Himalayan town. During the orientation session you will be given instructions about rucksack packing, marching/walking technique and general information about the trek route by our expert guides. Followed by an overnight stay in Grahan.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner.

Day 2

Day 2: Trek Grahan Village to Ming Thatch

Wake up to a hearty meal provided by our team and then we start our trek towards the north of the camping ground at Grahan Village. The slope becomes steeper and the path is confusing at some places, remember to stay with your group. Once you cross the lush green forest after walking a little more, you will see the Ming Thatch, Nagaru, and Sar top on the mountains. We call it a day here to have our dinner followed by an overnight stay at the camps.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 3

Day 3: The cold trail crossing from Min Thatch camp to Nagaru camp

The trek gets a bit tougher from day 4. The track is slippery, be very careful, listen carefully for every instruction by the camp leader and trek Guide. After breakfast we trek from Min Thatch to Nagaru and pass through the woods. It is a difficult part of the trek, the slope falls steeply to the valley below and the snow may be slippery. After crossing a steep slope for a couple of hours we'll reach the famous Nagaru campsite.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 4

Day 4: Snow Trail Crossing from Nagaru Camp to Biskeri Thatch camp via Sar Pass

Rise and shine early in the morning to start your trek. On this day we will climb up through the snow trails to a beautiful view of the dazzling peaks of Tosh Valley. We reach the top and take some time to enjoy the stunning view.

Then comes one of the most fun part of the trek, which is a 100ft long snow slide.

Meals:Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day
5

Day 5: Biskeri Thatch Camp to Barshaini and a Drive back to Kasol base camp

From Biskeri, we'll hike down across a steep plot of land with fencing all around. The path to the village of Pulga goes to the left of the campsite. The twin villages of Pulga and Tulga that sees plenty of tourists throughout the year are separated by the beautiful parvati river. From here we take a Jeep ride to our base camp at Kasol.

Meals:Breakfast, Lunch.
